FOREWORD

The Reformed Dutch Church of Paramus is located on the outskirts of the present Village of Ridgewood in Bergen County. The exact date of its organization is unknown, but from 1725 to 1728 the congregation, together with those of Schraalenburgh and Hackensack, was under the pastorate of the Rev. Reinhardt Erickson. In 1731 and 1732 the Rev. Georgius Wilhelmus Mancius was minister at Paramus and Schraalenburgh. During the next sixteen years there was no settled pastor, and the church was cared for by the Rev. Antonius Curtenius, pastor at Hackensack and Schraalenburgh, by the Rev. Johannes Van Driessen of Acquackanonk, and the Rev. Frederic Muzelius of Tappan, all within ten miles. It is therefore necessary to consult the records of those churches for Paramus baptisms and marriages, especially prior to 1748. The ministers who served the church from that time until 1850 were: Benjamin Van der Linde, 1748-1789; Gerardus Arentse Kuypers, 1788-1789; Isaac Blauvelt, 1790-1791; William Provost Kuypers, 1793-1796; Wilhelmus Eltinge, 1799-1850.

The first reference to a church building occurs on the fly leaf of the Dooop (or baptismal) Book, and reads as follows: "Den 21 Dag van April, 1735, is de Eerste Steen van de Kirk Gelegt." It was erected on a three-acre tract donated for the purpose by Peter Fauconier. The building was remodeled in 1785, and entirely rebuilt in 1800.

The baptisms of this church were recorded in a manner peculiar to but few Dutch churches of the period, and so far as we are aware no other New Jersey church employed this system. With the exception of the first four years the records were entered semi-alphabetically according to the baptismal names of the children. Names beginning with "A" were recorded chronologically, followed by those beginning with "B", then "C", etc. Such an arrangement is the despair of the genealogist who must necessarily read through the entire list in order to find all records of a given family or surname. FOREWORD

The Reformed Dutch Church of Farmington is located on the outskirts of the present Village of Bridgeport in Bergen County. The exact date of its organization is unknown, but from 1725 to 1728 the congregation, together with those of Schuylburgh and Hackensack, was under the pastoral of the Rev. Reinhardt Brinkley. In 1728 and 1729 the Rev. Georgius Wilhelmus Miancius was minister at Farmington and Schuylburgh. During the next sixteen years there was no settled pastor, and the church was cared for by the Rev. Aertse Cornelius, pastor at Hackensack and Schuylburgh, by the Rev. Johannes Van Lierden at Aspinbrook, and the Rev. Protestant Ministers of Tappan, all within ten miles. It is therefore necessary to consult the records of those churches for Farmington baptisms and marriages, especially prior to 1742. The ministers who served the church from that time until 1820 were: Hermanus Van der Lide, 1742-1751; Gerritus Arentse, 1751-1759; Isaac Hiltner, 1759-1771; William Finkbe, 1771-1787; Wilhelmus Munnig, 1787-1820.

The first reference to a church building occurs on the fly leaf of the Book (or baptismal) Book and reads as follows: "On 21st August van April, 1735, in the House of Steven van de Kist Church." It was erected on a tract of land donated for the purpose by Peter Lonsmeier. The building was destroyed in 1782 and entirely rebuilt in 1802.

The baptisms of this church were recorded in a manner peculiar to the few Dutch churches of the period, and so far as we are aware no other New Jersey church employed this system. With the exception of the first four years the records were entered semi-chronologically according to the baptismal names of the children. Names beginning with "A" were recorded chronologically, followed by those beginning with "H," then "C," etc. Such an arrangement is the despair of the genealogist who must necessarily read through the entire list in order to find all records of a given family or surname. Each of these alphabetical groups has been appropriately designated in this volume and indexed in the table of Contents.

The index presented at the end of the volume gives for the first time a complete analytical index to these baptismal records, with references to fathers, mothers, children and witnesses, as well as to the names in the list of church members, and in the gravestone records.

The earliest marriage records of the Paramus church begin in 1799 with the pastorate of the Rev. Wilhelmus Eltinge. For these records the reader is referred to Volume 22 of the New Jersey Archives, page 549, and Bergen County, N. J., Marriage Records, by Frances A. Westervelt, 1929, page 70.

Grateful acknowledgment is made to the Board of Trustees of the New Jersey Historical Society for permission to reprint the Baptismal Records from the Proceedings of that Society, and to the Board of Trustees of the Genealogical Society of New Jersey for permission to reprint the Gravestone Records from The Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey.

GRAVESTONE RECORDS FROM PARAMUS REFORMED DUTCH CHURCH YARD

COPIED OCTOBER 12, 1931

The rows are here numbered from east to west, and the stones in each row read from south to north. "Intermediate rows" are short rows interspersed at irregular intervals between the longer rows, and occur mostly in the oldest part of the yard. In this oldest section are a large number of "home-made" markers roughly shaped and, in many instances, bearing crudely cut initials, monograms, or otherwise abbreviated inscriptions. These latter have been interpreted as closely as modern type will permit. Those without identifying marks are here designated "rough markers." On some of the older stones the capital "I" occurs with a cross mark through the middle. This letter was frequently employed by the Dutch as an equivalent to the English "J," as well as "I," and where occurring in the following records has been set in italics, thus: I. In the following arrangement surnames have been placed first. Inscriptions quoted in full are preceded where possible by the surname. Where the surname is obscure a dash is used. The sign / separates the lines of the original inscriptions.

About twenty years ago the late Everett L. Zabriskie of Ridgewood copied most of the stones in this yard. This copy, made available to the public through the kindness of Mrs. Zabriskie, has been of assistance in compiling this record, especially in the case of the following stones now illegible or missing, Nos. 20, 37, 45, 171, 367, 369, 398, 400 and 510. At the time of making his copy Mr. Zabriskie noted that the inscriptions were gone from five stones, and that 124 field stones had no inscriptions.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

OF THE

AMERICAN PEOPLE
FROM THE FIRST SETTLEMENTS TO THE PRESENT TIME
BY J. W. FULTON

The history of the United States is a story of the growth of a great nation from a small group of settlers on a remote shore. It is a story of the struggles of the early pioneers for freedom and self-government, and of the triumphs of the American people in the face of adversity. It is a story of the development of the American character, and of the rise of the United States to the position of a world power.

CHAPTER I

The first settlers of the United States were the Pilgrims, who came to the New World in 1620. They were a group of English Puritans who had fled from the religious persecution of the Church of England. They settled in the state of Massachusetts, and founded the town of Plymouth. The Pilgrims were the first of many groups of settlers who came to the New World in search of a better life. They were followed by the Puritans, the Quakers, the Catholics, and the many other groups who came to the United States in the centuries that followed. Each group brought with it its own customs, traditions, and way of life, and together they formed the diverse and rich tapestry of the American people.

CHAPTER II

The second chapter of the history of the United States is the story of the American Revolution. It was a time of great struggle and sacrifice, as the American people fought for their freedom from British rule. The Revolution was a turning point in the history of the United States, for it was then that the American people established their own government and became a sovereign nation. The Revolution was a testament to the power of the American people to overcome adversity and achieve their goals.

CHAPTER III

The third chapter of the history of the United States is the story of the American Civil War. It was a time of great conflict and division, as the American people fought for the preservation of the Union. The Civil War was a turning point in the history of the United States, for it was then that the American people established the principle of equality for all. The Civil War was a testament to the power of the American people to overcome adversity and achieve their goals.

INDEX

Numbers refer to pages, except in the gravestone entries, in which the number—always preceded by the number sign (§)—refers to the numbered item in the gravestone list, pages 146—.

For convenience all different spelling of the same surname are grouped under one spelling, but cross references are given where the name differs so as not to be readily recognizable.

Where a name appears more than once on the same page the number of times it appears is given in parentheses after the page number.

The following abbreviations are used in this index:

- c.*==child.
- f.*==father.
- gs.*==gravestone. (Number refers to item, not to page).
- m.*==mother.
- mem.*==member.
- w.*—witness or sponsor.
